Epilogue

NOW han the Lord of Wisdom's halles broughte
With aid of Council grave, o'er journey fraughte
With snares so depe, his lieges younge and gaye,
The pitfalls caught a few, and some awaye
Did go of their own liste, but many wys
And brave souls toiled on to win the prys.
And honors won, fame for themselves and ful
Renown and glory, too, for their great school
In tourneys classic, journalistic, and
Forensic shone their learning while the band
And eek the chorus hath displayn their skill
In realm of art. With no less zealous will
Han these bold pilgrims stryven in feats of strength
On many a field the heroes marked their length
On cold hard ground to vaunt a golden ball
As trophy of their nimble feet, or withal
Did toil to reach a basket's parlous height
Nor spared themselves in any strenuous fight;
While on the sidelines the ones of skill more slight
Han lent their voices' loud encouragement
To cheer with trained throats their comrades bent
On victory. And great rewards have been
Their portion; and greater yet may be, we ween,
The conquests waiting that greater pilgrimage
They have to go from youth to hoary age.

A black and white photograph showing a large group of people, likely students and faculty, standing in several rows in front of a building. The building features three prominent, large arched windows or doorways. The group is densely packed, filling the foreground and middle ground. The image is somewhat faded and has a grainy texture, characteristic of an old photograph.

Debate Club

Achievement is the measure by which we determine worth. The North Dallas Debate Club started the season in September with seven members from the previous year's club and a total of seventeen member-degrees in the National Forensic League, a national speech honor society. At the present time the club boasts twenty-five members and a total of 58 member-degrees. Six members have been awarded the degree of distinction this year, the highest honor offered by this society.

During the past season members have participated in speech tournaments held at Joinersville, Houston, Baylor, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Denton, North Dallas, and the N. F. L. tournament at S. M. U. Debating teams have participated in over one hundred and fifty debates and have won more than ninety of these.

In the City of Dallas division of the State University Interscholastic League, North Dallas placed first in girls' and second in boys' debate, first in boys' and second in girls' extemporaneous speaking, and third and fourth, respectively, in boys' and girls' declamation.

North Dallas has the leading N. F. L. chapter in the district composed of Texas, Louisiana, and Arkansas. Mr. Knapp has for the past three years held chairmanship of this district. Officers of the Club are

The French Club

The French Club of North Dallas High School is composed of four lesser clubs, each of which represents one of the French classes.

The membership of the French Club includes all the students in North Dallas High School who take French. Each French class is organized as a club and these clubs in turn are a part of the central club. Although each club has its own set of officers, the central club meets monthly at which time one of the class clubs has charge of the program. The programs usually includes a play dealing with some phase of French history and music. The club also sponsors contests of various sorts. This year a medal will be presented to the student who has the widest general knowledge concerning France, her history and her literature. For the social event of this term the club plans to have a picnic at the O'Beirne home.

FOOT BALL LETTERMEN

WILBUR KERTH . . . Co-captain . . . played wingback, called signals, and kicked . . . probably the greatest all around athlete ever to wear the orange and white . . . noted for his ability to catch passes . . . three letters and All-City selection.

ROBERT ZSCHACH . . . Co-captain . . . played fullback . . . blocked, called signals, and plunged the line . . . considered the best defensive back in the city . . . did more than his part in winning the championship . . . three letters and All-City.

DEAN BURFORD . . . All-State tackle . . . was largely the reason why opponents could not gain yardage . . . scored two touchdowns during season—blocked a punt in the Adamson game and sprinted 60 yards for a touchdown . . . two-year letterman.

MORGAN NESBITT . . . unanimously selected as All-City end . . . was excellent on defense . . . one of the best athletes ever in North Dallas . . . caught the pass for the last touchdown in the Tech game . . . two letters.

1936 Football Review

The North Dallas Football Team of 1936 was undoubtedly the greatest team in the fifteen years of its history. For the first time the team won the coveted City Championship, and the dream of Bulldog gridiron prestige became a reality. The season is especially notable for one reason. This was Coach Anderson's first year as head coach, and Mr. Hyde's first year as assistant coach.

The Bulldogs won seven games of their eight-game schedule, piled up thirty-two touchdowns against five for their nine opponents, and amassed a total of 139 points to their opponents' 36. Such a record had never been even approximated at North Dallas.

Where the credit for winning the Championship is due, of course, is undetermined, but certainly much of it was because of the fine coaching done by Coach Anderson and Coach Hyde. The players highly respected both coaches and would fight until the final whistle for them.

This year North Dallas opened up a dazzling passing attack which clicked all season long. Wally Smith, who also led the running attack, did the passing, and Keith and Nesbitt, the receiving. This year's team was an offensive team, with its plays designed for long yardage. Even in view of this fact, the team had an air-tight pass defense, and a good line defense.

Playing before 20,000 people, the Bulldogs turned in their best performance of the year to win 26 to 6 over Tech, who had dominated the City Series for the past three years. Tech, who had worked ceaselessly for a pass defense against the Bulldogs, could not stop their aerial circus, and the Bulldogs romped all over the field. This win gave North Dallas the Championship.

Basketball

North Dallas basketball team was not so successful this year as last. Lack of a few experienced players was the main reason. The team consisted of the following: Billy Learn, Onnie Loper, Bill Blessing, Willie Keith, and Wilbur Keith.

Golf

Right: Billy Berry, John Hilscher, Roy Crowley, Ted Rall, and Wilbur Keith.

Track

The track and field team of the New Braunfels school district, led by Coach Fred Hill, has a strong chance of winning the state championship. The team has won several titles in the past and is expected to finish high in the state championship. The Bulldogs have a strong chance of winning the title, but they may not capture the title, they are expected to finish high.

Tennis

Baseball

The baseball team this year is suffering keenly from a lack of experienced pitchers. There are five lettermen returning, but only two are pitchers. The lettermen are Oswald Dauterive, James McKee, Douglas Ives, Milton Hampton, and Davis.

Oswald Dauterive and Tommy Nance, a catcher and outfielder, showed much promise in fielding and in batting.

Cheer Leaders

Front Row—Left to Right: Barbara Becker, Norvelle Webb, and Aileen Irwin.
Back Row: Phil Baxter, Lawrence Rough.

Ed. Lop.: "I can't decide whether to go to a palmist or a mind reader."

Grady B.: "Go to the palmist. It's obvious that you have a palm."

Elbert S.: "Didn't I tell you to notice when the glue boiled over?"

Bernie M.: "I did. It was half past nine."

Tom E.: "What do you do when you are kissed?"

Margy S.: "I yell."

Tom E.: "Would you yell if I kissed you?"

Margy S.: "I'm still hoarse from last night."

CRY OF A P. G.

Those jokes you told us, oh what pain
But that we'll ne'er endure again
Cause four long years for this we've waited
We'll not laugh; we've graduated!

Miss Meriwether: "What is the contribution of the Middle Ages to modern high school life?"

Billy Steele: "Chaperones."

Libby W.: "Some moon, isn't it?"

Egbert: "Yeah, some dew, too."

Libby: "Well, I don't."

"Mr. Chairman," quoth the flea on Robinson Crusoe's back, "I move we adjourn to Friday."

"I draw the line at kissing,"
Said the bashful maid intent,
But he was a football hero
And over the line he went.

Marshal W.: "You have a nice collection of books, but you should have more shelves."

Harry T.: "I know, but nobody seems to lend me shelves."

John C.: "What did you do last summer?"

John C.: "I worked in Des Moines."

John C.: "Cover it up!"

Harriet's Cook: "Did they say anything about the cooking?"

New Maid: "No, but I noticed them praying before they started eating."

Mrs. Pierce: "What are you doing in the pantry, Tom?"

Tom: "Only fighting against temptation, Mom."

Miss Agnew: "John, did you ever have an accident?"

John: "No, ma'am, I never did."

Miss Agnew: "Johnny, a scout is truthful. Wasn't that an accident when your father's mule kicked you last summer?"

John: "No, that mule did it on purpose."

Ben R.: "Say, I found somebody who laughs at all my jokes."

Harry L.: "You don't mean it."

Ben: "Yes, she's got a gold tooth and likes to show it off."

Miss Epperson: "What is a millennium, Tom?"

Tom McElroy: "An insect with many more legs than a centennial."

Minister: "In looking over the collection plate, I have discovered three Canadian nickels, a Chinese copper piece, and a Mexican dime. How nice it is to know that folks come from such great distances to attend services."

The students of N. D. plea before exams:
"Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget."

After exams they bemoan the outcome thus:
"Lord God of Hosts was with us not,
For we forgot, for we forgot."

Prof: "Prexy, the astronomy students are cheating on their exams; something must be done about it."

Prexy: "What are they doing?"

Prof: "Hitting each other over the head with mallets."

Mr. Roberts: "Son, I'll teach you to make love to my daughter."

Jack W.: "Fine, I don't seem to be making much progress."

Then there was the absent-minded professor who thought that he had left his watch at home so he took it out to see if he had time to go back after it.

Ben S.: "Joe certainly was lucky."

Tom L.: "How's that?"

Ben: "He swallowed an oyster that had a pearl in it and the pearl paid the cost of the operation and the funeral."
